Brief Report:

Communication is imparting or exchanging of information by speaking, writing, or using some other medium. While dealing with law profession, it requires effective communication skill not only for law aspirants but all faculty and non-faculty enrichment. To meet effective communication skill in faculty conducted programme on "Inter personal and effective communication" The Chief guest of programme Ms Priyanka Mardikar focused on the importance and need of effective communication skills, soft skills and personality development. Faculty must be able to break down complex ideas into simpler parts and smaller steps to transmit to their students. It helps improve relationships, increase understanding, and model positive interactions.

Date: 17/1/2021

Academic Year: 2020-2021

Activity: Three days Faculty Development program on "Intellectual Property Rights: prospects & challenges".

Participants: Teaching staff.

Venue: Assembly Hall

Date: 14/01/ 2021 to 16/01/2021

Resource person: Dr. Rohini Fuladi, Assistant professor GWCL college of Law

Brief Report:

In the present era, IPR become paramount importance to various industries. So, it is required basic knowledge related to Intellectual Property Rights for everyone. Hence, under the guidance of IPR cell organised three days Faculty development programme on "Intellectual Property Rights: prospects & challenges "to better understand the prospects and complexity. The programme was scheduled in the guidance of Dr. Snehal Fadnavis Principal GWCL college of Law, Nagpur.

DAY 1

Date: 14/01/2021

Inaugural Session: 10.30 a.m. – 12.30 p.m.

The Resource Person Dr. Rohini Fuladi, Assistant professor GWCL college of Law acknowledged about the Overview on IPR in modern era, and the importance of intellectual property rights. Intellectual Property rights are a unique creation of human intellectual labour and therefore needs protection. Nowadays, unauthorised use of unique ideas generated by owner has become one of the most common infringements of IPR. She emphasized that people are still unaware about IPR and their advantages in taking rights for their Intellectual property. In such cases, the government should promote the awareness of IPR in remote areas. These programs highlighted recent aspects of IPR laws and recent case laws.

Inaugural Session: 10.30 a.m. – 12.30 p.m.

Brief Report

The Resource Person of day Three Session Dr Leena Langde, Assistant professor GWCL College of Law, Nagpur. The resource person summarised the following key points about the “Intellectual Property Right in cyberspace”. Now a day’s cyberspace became hub for infringement of IPR. Cyberspace is non-physical domain. So, any can make profit by using another person’s creation without the owner consent. In pandemic infringement of copyright issues are increased through-out the world thus it needs to protect Online content in cyberspace. The resource person also highlighted about the provisions of Intellectual Property Rights and Information technology Act 2000. She also focused on the loopholes for implementation of legal legislation for protection of IPR in cyberspace.
